FOR

FRIDAY MORNING.... NOVEMBER 12, 1858

NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS. Wishing to confine our business as near as possible to the CASH SYSTEM, we have determined hereafter to collect our subscriptions. within the city, QUARTERLY. To carry thisdetermination into effect, we have placed our whole city list in the hands of Mr. WILLIAM GILL, who will make the collections, and also attend to the delivery of the Papers, and see that subscribers are served punctually. We hope this arrangement will be satisfactory to all parties. Those who may desire to save them solves the necessity of making four payments curing the year, can, if they prefer it, pay in advance for the whole year.

We were struck with the sweet voice of Miss Annie Scanlan, who sang the little ditty which occurs in the play (the Stranger) with a grace and correctness we were not prepared to expect, and in a manner which gives promise of future excellence. With a little more self-confidence she would soon become a favorite, and a nightly song by her would be an attractive feature. - Memphis Avalanche.

We are glad to hear our young and talcated little friend is winning some praise from our Memphis neighbors; although not as much as we think she deserves; for, to our mind, she is the most promising young comedienne and vocalist of the day. If our worthy Manager could make the necessary arrangements to few nights, her many friends, and we know shais. our whole city, would be delighted, not only to hear her silver voice again, but also to see her in some of the pretty parts she performed with great success, for benevolent purposes, a year or two ago. We hope and desire the Brantley, and Corbitt. 'press-gang' of our sister city will give our young friend that aid and comfort which social and moral worth combined with true

CONCLUSION OF THE TRIAL OF REV. J. R. GRAVES .- The trial of this interesting case was concluded on Wednesday evening last. The attendance was large and the interest manifested great.
